

Women in Diplomacy

“

*Its not enough just to open the door to the rooms of power.
We have to get inside and rearranged the furniture*

Getrude Mongela

Women in Diplomacy

Women in Diplomacy in Tanzania is an organization registered under the Non government organization act 2002 with reg no ooNGO/R/3673 that was established in the year 2022 by a young visionary female leader with great passion in Diplomacy .

Women in International Relations (IR) and Diplomacy in Tanzania was designed to honor women in various decision -making roles and leadership positions in the country as well as to build and empower women inorder to achieve sustainable development.

Women In diplomacy aims to host yearly events followed up with a number of initiatives to encourage young women and girls to walk the path to challenge their capabilities in pursuing their dreams, goals and Ambitions.

“

I think Women do what is essential in diplomacy, which is try to put yourself in others persons shoes”

Madeline Albright

Kanen Mushi

Founder

Kanen is a young visionary leader in Tanzania. She has been engaged into community development, volunteering and also social responsibility for more than five years. She has great expertise in protocol and youth development.

Her having acquired a bachelor's degree in international relation and diplomacy, Kanen is optimistic and equipped with team working skills and lobbying that has enabled her to be part of the organizing teams in protocol of various national and international events. In 2017 she was selected among the youths in Tanzania, as a global champion for the sustainable development goals (2030 agenda).

In January she 2020 had a chance to receive Ambassadors and High Commissioners and providing protocol assistance for the accreditation presentation and engage them in youth discussions. She is a Certified Trainer of the Model of African Union Training of trainers conducted at the British council. She has Volunteered at the Youth of United Nations Association in organising, Seminars, conferences, workshops and other events.

“The real secret about diplomacy is that you are trained to say something when there is nothing to say and say nothing when there is something to say

Our Partners

About Us

Women in Diplomacy in Tanzania is an organization registered under the Non government organization act 2002 with reg no ooNGO/R/3673 that was established in the year 2022 by a young visionary female leader with great passion in Diplomacy .

Women in International Relations (IR) and Diplomacy in Tanzania was designed to honor women in various decision -making roles and leadership positions in the country as well as to build and empower women inorder to achieve sustainable development.

Women In diplomacy aims to host yearly events followed up with a number of initiatives to encourage young women and girls to walk the path to challenge their capabilities in pursuing their dreams, goals and Ambitions.

MISSION

To honor women in various decision -making roles and leadership positions in the country whom are connect-ed in promoting diplomacy, to bridge the gap and provide guidance to the youth by building sustain-ability.

VISION

The NGO seeks in acknowl-edging women in high level positions for the youth to learn from, as well as raising patriotic leaders for the better future

VALUES

Transparency Accountability
Lasting Impact
Team Work
Inclusive

OUR PROJECTS

Women in Diplomacy is conducting different projects every year, These are activities involves events plus number of initiative to encourage young women and girls to walk the path to challenge their capabilities in pursuing their dreams, goals and ambitions.

Women in Diplomacy Launching

First commemoration of Women in Diplomacy in Tanzania is the first concert in Tanzania which brings together women in various diplomatic fields to discuss issues on women empowerment and economic development reflecting the experience on their career journey. Inspiring young female generation to become better leaders.

It was first launched in 23rd March 2022, and designed to be conducted every year.

Outreach Program

WID in support of community development, it reaches out to the marginalized communities to conduct trainings, seminars, and donations. WID reaches out to female schools providing education on hygiene, Sustainable development Goals of the World (sdgs) including goal number 3) Good Health & well being, 4) Quality Education, 5) Gender Equality, 6) Clean Water and Sanitation as well as goal 13) Climate action.

It is our greatest desire to see that we contribute and encourage development by valuing the young girls as Menstruation is the right of every female and it is the responsibility of all of us from the family to the national level, to continue to create an enabling environment for girls to have a safe menstruation.

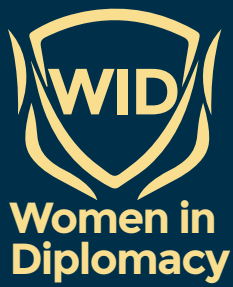

“When women thrive, all society benefits, and succeeding generation are given a better start in life.

Kofi Annan

Mentorship Program

A mentorship program which brings together the most prominent women in Tanzania, Africa and world diplomacy at large to help in grooming and providing guidance to young female inspired to be leaders. It also aiming at facilitating to training young leaders by giving the special skills including digital and communication Skills.

www.wid.or.tz
info@wid.co.tz
+255 754 551 030